NO. 71.

This and That.

Judge W. C. Bell decided that J. M. Harmon's name should go on the ballot as the republican candidate for jailer of Boyle.

Six persons were killed and 12 were injured by the derailment of an electric train which was being tested for speed in France.

Two men were killed and another was probably fatally injured by a passenger train striking an automobile at Lynnbrook, L. I.

Col. Theodore A. Dodge, the military historian, of New York and Paris, died at Versailles, France. He was born at Pittsfield, Mass., in 1842.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Burnside, it was decided to re-open that institution again in a short time.

Dr. R. L. C. White, for 22 years grand keeper of records and seal of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Tennessee, died in Nashville.

John Stewart Kennedy, lawyer, financier and philanthropist, died in New York of whooping cough. He was within two months of his 80th birthday.

William J. Engle, of Butte, Neb., was the first name drawn from the pile of envelopes in the United States land drawing for land in the Cheyenne and Standing Rock Indian reservations.

Thirty-four lives were lost in the wreck of the Donaldson Line steamer Hestia, which went ashore on the Old Proprietor ledge off Seal Cove, Grand Manan Island, off the coast of Maine. Four of those lost were boys. Only six persons were saved.

The E. O. Eshley Tobacco Co., of Cincinnati, brought suit in the United States Circuit Court at Cincinnati against the Burley Tobacco Society, Clarence LeBus, president, and Alonzo Ferguson, asking $196,000 damages under the Sherman anti-trust law.

The little city of Hickman entertained for an hour the President of the United States and distinguished party accompanying him down the Mississippi River. The President was too hoarse to make an extended speech, but thanked his hearers of his welcome and renewed his promise to lead the fight for deep waterways.

Its A Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the king of Throat and lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs and colds and lagrippe vanishes. It heals cough-rackel membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Goo. Moore, Black Jack, N. C., writes "it cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors," 50c, $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

Attended by delegations from the Confederate camps of the city, the Daughters of the Confederacy and a large concourse of citizens, funeral services were held at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Richmond, Va., over the ashes of Mrs. Margaret Howell Jefferson Davis Hayes, daughter of the President of the Southern Confederacy, who died recently in Colorado. Interment was in the Davis plot in Hollywood cemetery.

The Bed-Rock of Success.

Lies in a keen, clear brain, backed by indomitable will and resistless energy. Such power comes from the splendid health that Dr. King's New Life Pills impart. They vitalize every organ and build up brain and body. J. A. Harmon, Laramore, W. Va., writes: "They are the best pills I ever used." 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

TO PRINTERS.—This office has for sale a lot of display and body type which has been used very little, a medium sized imposing stone, a lot of cases, and several cone pulleys. Will go cheap if sold at once. INTERIOR JOURNAL office, Stanford, Ky.

Frightful Fate Averted.

"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Disbury, Kellher, Minn., "without Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Infallible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures burns, scalds, old sores, boils, skin eruptions. World's best for piles. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

"Sure an' what the devil is a chafin'-dish?" asked Pat.

"Whist, man," answered Nora, "it's a fryin'-pan that's got into society."

It is the weak nerves that are crying out for help. Then help them, don't drug the stomach or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. Vitalize these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how fast good health will come to you again. Test it and see. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

HUSTONVILLE.

James Yowell sold to J. C. Johnson 55 cattle at from 45 to 55.

Mayor Charles Wheeler is the owner of a handsome Pope automobile, and it is as good as it looks.

The Hustonville Produce Co. bought 90 cases of eggs one day last week and poultry in proportion.

By next season our city will have a Tobacco Sales Warehouse with a capacity sufficient to handle the crops of Lincoln, Casey and Russell counties.

Several nice blue grass farms, small, medium and large, are now on the market counter to close out quickly. W. R. Williams & Co.

Harry Jacobs, the monument man, was here Tuesday and closed a contract with Dr. Alcorn for a granite monument to go over the grave of Mrs. Hattie Bishop at Millersburg.

Arthur L. Carpenter died on Oct. 16 at his home in East St. Louis of typhoid pneumonia, aged 34, and was buried here. He was born, reared and educated in this community and had many friends who mourn his untimely end.

F. N. Sims, who has been quite sick for some time, is able to sit up. Wallace and Dr. LaFon Carpenter desire to return their thanks to their many friends in this community for kindness shown them in the loss of their brother, Arthur, who was buried here last week.

Hans Harvey Helm and Charles A. Hardin were guests at Hotel Weatherford Saturday night. Tom Gooch, the veteran turkey buyer, is on the road now buying a car-load of the Thanksgiving fowls. Frank Lusk, of Pennsylvania, is at home for a short vacation and is looking fine.

The Hallo'en party given by the Misses McCormack Saturday night was greatly enjoyed. The "Ghost Club," composed of many young ladies and gentlemen, presented a weird appearance marching on the streets, and at 11 P. M. returned to the McCormack home, where the entertainment concluded by an hour's recital by sweet touches on the piano of Miss Kate Wariner and her enchanting voice.

A new town in the West End is rapidly forging to the front. Its name is Geneva and is named for the five-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Newell because she was born on the day the first house was completed in the village. To day there are three stores, one saw-mill, two blacksmith shops and a number of residences. It is located 1½ miles South of McKinney and on the pike and railroad and overlooks the beautiful Green river valley. Watch it grow.

Born, to the wife of Henry Hudson, a son, Clarence Burton Hudson. Mrs. J. D. Richards, of Danville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Hudson. Miss Julia Damron is visiting friends in Liberty this week. J. J. Coffman, of Kidd's Store, has bought a home and opened a blacksmith shop at Geneva. Dr. Lee F. Huffman, wife and daughter, Miss Annie Cook Huffman, of Lexington, attended the Gibbs-Hopper wedding. They were accompanied by Mrs. George Chinn. Miss Edna Keiser, of Sailor Park, O., a close friend of the bride, attended the wedding. Mrs. Hill Spalding, of Louisville, is visiting her father, Dr. Alcorn. Mrs. Gibbs, of Pittsburgh, Pa., attended the Gibbs-Hopper nuptials.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Marion Bishop, a well-known citizen of Science Hill, dropped dead.

W. F. Jeffries, hardware merchant, died at Columbia. He was 61 years of age.

Henry McGown, for killing Losier Dunbar in Russell county, was given 21 years.

The home of James W. Hamilton, agent of the L. & N. at Richmond, burned.

William Sparks, who killed J. J. Collins in Madison and had a hung jury, was given bail in $5,000.

Dr. Bolin bought the R. F. Peters farm of 58 acres on the Columbia road near Somerset, for $4,000.

A dormitory for the accommodation of young men will be built at the Barbourville Institute at a cost of $18,000.

Charles L. Bowlds, former cashier of the First National Bank of Burnside, is in the toils for wrecking the Bank of Grand County, Colorado.

W. T. Malone was acquitted at Richmond for killing J. Kinney at Berea. It was shown that Kinney was stealing chickens at the home of Malone at the time he was shot.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made.

Dr. Shoop created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor—is made in just one minute. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Penny's Drug Store.

The programme of the visit of President Taft at Jackson, Miss., includes a reception at the Statehouse and a banquet at $25 a plate.

NEWS NOTES.

M. D. Coffield, a retired merchant of Birdsville, Livingston county, dropped dead at Smithland.

A freight engine exploded on the Coal and Coke railway at Yankee Dam, W. Va., killing five men.

The lumber yard of W. J. Hughes & Co., Louisville, was destroyed by fire causing a $100,000 loss.

H. F. Grant, driving an Alco car, won the 278-mile automobile classic at Long Island in four hours, 25 minutes and 42 seconds.

W. Q. Adams, until a few weeks ago publisher of the Owensboro Inquirer, died after a prolonged illness at his home in Owensboro.

The inability of the steamboats to keep up with the schedule is badly disarranging the plans made for President Taft's trip down the Father of Waters.

Following a street fight in which 25 shots were fired, John Hamilton, a farmer, was shot from his horse while riding through the main street of Brooks-ville.

Attorney General Breathitt has authorized the bringing of legal proceedings to prevent the merger of the Frankfort and Cincinnati and the Louisville and Nashville railroads.

A new record for long-distance target shooting was established at the State rifle range at Frankfort by Col. McLean Moffat, who made 49 out of a possible 50 bullseyes at 1,000 yards.

Judge Bethshares, aged 79 years, one of Paducah's most prominent and wealthy citizens, was fatally injured when struck by an automobile driven by C. Smith, owner of Smith's Greater Shows.

Armed men made a raid on the Jackson Deposit Bank and forcibly removed the ballots printed for to-day's election. The Sheriff followed the men, but withdrew when confronted with weapons in order to prevent bloodshed.

John Eagle, charged with a criminal assault upon Blanche Wise, the 11-year-old daughter of City Councilman Wise, was taken before the girl and her child companions at Washington, Ind., and identified as the assailant.

Edwin Hawley, who is forging to the front in the railroad world, is negotiating for a loan of $20,000,000 or more to be spent on improvement for his roads. He is planning to double track the main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

Vital statistics for the first six months of the present year show an excess of deaths over births in France of 28,205. In 1908 the excess of deaths was 10,508 and this growing discrepancy has raised again a cry of alarm for the future of the French race.

Game Warden Scales and the police at Latonia took from an accommodation train 15 sacks, five boxes and several barrels, containing in all over 1,000 rabbits. They were being shipped from various points in Kentucky to Cincinnati. Violation of the game laws is alleged.

Nine lives are known to have been lost in the fire that practically destroyed the Citizens Savings Bank block at St. Johnsbury, Vt. Two persons were killed by falling from the upper windows of the burning building, while seven others were buried in the ruins. Four injured were taken to the hospital, two of whom are not expected to survive their injuries.

E. A. Bryne, tackle on the West Point team, was severely injured during the second half of the Army-Harvard football game Saturday. He was carried unconscious from the field, and not being revived at the end of 10 minutes the officials called the game. The young man is suffering from partial paralysis of respiration and little hope of recovery is entertained.

Jack Johnson and James J. Jeffries—for the Negro insisted that, as champion, his name should go first—signed articles in New York binding them to fight 45 or more rounds to a finish, not later than July 5, 1910, before the club offering the best financial inducement, the winner to take a side bet of $10,000 and 75 per cent. of the purse and the loser to take 25 per cent.

Night riders attacked the homes of George Kreitz and Ben Longnecker, president of the First National Bank of Maysville, in the western portion of Mason county. Mr. Kreitz's door was broken open with a crowbar and he was warned to pool his tobacco. At Mr. Longnecker's house the fire was returned and the riders were driven off.

It is reported that three were wounded. Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the noted explorer, gave a free lecture at Hamilton, Mont. Hamilton is the home of E. N. Barrill, whose recent affidavits refuted Dr. Cook's claims of having reached the summit of Mount McKinley. Dr. Cook charged that money had been used to obtain the affidavits and that he was willing to leave the verdict with the people of Montana after he had submitted the proofs. He also declared that he would go again to the top of Mount McKinley and there would be found his records.

THE unveiling of the monument to the late Governor William Goebel in the State cemetery, Frankfort, will take place on the tenth anniversary of his death, February 3, next. This was decided upon at a meeting of the Goebel Monument Commission at Frankfort which was presided over by former United States Senator McCleary. Justice Goebel was present, but Arthur Goebel could not get there. Judge Lewis McQuown was appointed chairman of the ceremonies to be carried out at the unveiling. The General Assembly will be in session at that time and an elaborate programme will be arranged. Senator McCleary and Ex-Gov. Beckham will be among the speakers of the occasion. The sum of $15,500 was spent for the monument, leaving a balance of $1,234 in the fund, which will be kept on interest as a perpetual fund for the purpose of keeping the monument and lot in good shape.

CHARGES will be preferred before the Alabama Presbyterian Synod against the North Alabama Presbytery for declaring in favor of the proposed prohibition amendment to the State Constitution. It is stated that the matter is of a political nature and is prohibited by the church laws. The Missouri Synod declined to endorse the State-wide movement in that State on the ground of it being a political issue.

THE democratic nominees for county offices are men of character and standing, who have been faithful to every trust reposed in them, and are consequently deserving of success at the polls to-day. That the affairs of the county are safe in the hands of democrats is amply attested by the splendid administration of the official duties for years past. Go to the polls and support the ticket from top to bottom.

IF these lines fall before your eyes before 4 o'clock this, Tuesday afternoon, take this good bit of advice. Go straight to your voting precinct and on retiring to the booth, stamp in the circle under the rooster. This is all that is necessary to vote for every democrat on the ticket. You might spoil your ballot by trying to scratch and too it is a most pernicious habit to get in.

DEMOCRATIC voters, 10,000 in number, assembled in Courthouse Square in Louisville Saturday night and cheered William O. Head and the entire Democratic ticket. The demonstration was pronounced by experienced observers to be the most memorable in Louisville in recent years.

POLITICAL.

For the purpose of expressing their confidence in Charles R. Crane, who was recently forced to resign as Minister-Designate to China, prominent business and professional men of Chicago have asked Mr. Crane to be their guest at a banquet.

Mr. Hearst closed his campaign in New York Saturday night. Grand opera singers entertained the audience until the speaker arrived at the meeting, which was held in Madison Square Garden. Chairman Parsons, of the republican committee, estimates the vote for Barnard at 260,000, Gaynor's at 190,000, and Hearst third, with 140,000.

With President Taft declaring himself squarely in favor of a bond issue for the development of the country's inland waterways and the Governors of 21 States voicing assurance of their hearty sympathy with the movement for such improvement, the first day of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterways convention at New Orleans was characterized by much enthusiasm.

President Taft was kept on the go in New Orleans and he retired to his train tired man, declining invitations to dinner. The President visited the naval station, Jackson Barracks and the French quarter and attended a vocal concert at Tulane University. His train will leave before daylight for Jackson, Miss., where the day will be spent.

The ballot dispute in New York was promptly acted upon by the courts. Supreme Court Justice Gerard decided that the Independence League convention which placed William J. Gaynor, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, in nomination as an independent party candidate, was not a valid convention, and ordered the names of Mr. Gaynor and his associate nominees from the column.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Work has begun on a $7,000 Baptist church at Horse Cave.

Eld. Joseph Ballou will preach at Mt. Xenia at 2:30 next Sunday afternoon.

During the week of prayer just ended at Bessemer, Ala., the sum of $800 was realized for the benefit of the Sue Bennett Memorial School of London, this State.

Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon, pastor of the Grace-street Presbyterian church of Richmond, Va., and who stood high in the courts of the Southern Presbyterian church, is dead.

More funds were raised during the past year by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church than during any other time in the history of the organization.

W. P. Dearing, president of the Baptist College at Oakland City, Ind., led a party of college students in a cornfield where they husked corn all day. The money they made will be given to the Young Men's Christian Association at Oakland City.

There will be no services at either the Christian, Presbyterian or Baptist churches Sunday night, next. The congregations of these churches will worship with the Methodists in order to get better acquainted with Rev. J. J. Dickey, the new pastor.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mrs. Mary L. Stone, a bride 13 years old, is suing for divorce in Atlanta.

Miss Linnie, daughter of J. B. Sandusky, and Mr. Urrell, of Harrodsburg, were married at Lancaster.

Miss Martha Henderson and Mr. J. R. Weddle were married at the Presbyterian parsonage at Paint Lick.

Wesley Blankenship, aged 20, and Miss Nellie Carpenter, 18, were married at Robert White's on the 29th.

Miss Jennie Newell, daughter of B. G. Newell, and Henry Hail, both of the Pisgah section of Pulaski, were married last week.

College education does not tend to encourage women to indulge in matrimony, according to statistics which were presented to the Association of College Alumnae at Cincinnati by Mrs. Emma Garret Boyd, of Atlanta, president of the Southern Association of College Women.

"Do you really want to buy a gold brick?"

"If I kin git one reasonable," explained Farmer Haw. "The summer boarders were disappointed because I didn't have one. I don't want to make this mistake another year."

George Settle, a well-known attorney of Berea, was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary on the charge of having intimate relations with a girl under 16, preferred by Drucilla Moberly. Settle is married and widely known.

Judge J. P. Adams, republican nominee for circuit judge in the Breathitt district, has called for troops to assist him in his race against Judge Redwine. He seems to be resorting to Taylor-Powers tactics.

"I see a college professor claims that Chaucer will outlive Shakespeare."

"Well, of all the ignorance! Both of them fellers have been dead for 300 years."

"This here explorer charges as much for a lecture as Patti did for a concert."

"And Patti had the proofs with her. She could go to the chromatic pole right before your eyes."

When you clean up a million bones They then become, As the most captious critic owns, A tidy sum.

Kipling says that a woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke."

"Well, woman is traveling in the right direction. Haven't you noticed her present panache shape?"

WRECK—A fearful head-on collision occurred on the Q. & C. three miles South of McKinney Sunday morning, causing the instant death of Engineer Roscoe C. Leach and the serious wounding of a brakeman whose name we did not learn. A mistake in train orders caused the wreck, which will prove a costly one, as two engines and 15 cars were badly torn up. Engineer Leach, who was killed, was a son of Mr. Craig Leach and he met his death within a mile or so of his home. He was a fine young man and his untimely death has caused much sorrow. It was hours before his body could be found, as many cars of coal were piled upon him. A number of our people went to the scene and at one time Sunday afternoon fully 500 people were on the ground.

This magnificent herd of Shorthorns has won 74 ribbons at Kentucky, Virginia and Maryland fairs this year, 32 of which were blue and 28 red. All of the calves that will be sold are by the well-known herd bull—Anoka Marshall.

JUDGE SAUFLEY, the nominee for Circuit Judge, held this office for the 11 years next preceding the present term just now closing. Deeply learned in the law and fully mindful of the dignity and importance of his high office, Judge Saufley administered the duties of his office throughout the whole of the time without fear or favor but with the full consciousness of the rights of litigants and of the obligations of his oath.—Harrodsburg Herald.

PENDLETON.—George Pendleton, son of the late A. P. Pendleton, died at his home on Whitley Avenue yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock of Bright's disease, aged 38 years. His first wife, who was Miss Jennie Withers, preceded him to the grave several years ago, his second marriage being to Miss Lunsford, who survives him, with four small children to mourn his loss. The funeral will occur at the house to-day at 2 o'clock. Services by Rev. D. M. Walker and burial in Buffalo cemetery. Mr. Pendleton was a hardworking young man and his many friends will regret to hear of his death. He had been ill only short time.

In spite of the declaration that the production of foodstuffs is not keeping pace with the growth of population, the Department of Agriculture has issued a statement showing that the United States is more than holding its own in the task of feeding its people.

A big crowd attended Hon. B. B. King's sale at Moreland and satisfactory prices ruled throughout. Mr. King treated the crowd as his guests and gave them a fine dinner. Brood mares sold at $35 to $130, jennets $40 to $250, jacks $75 to $45. Mules by pairs $230 to $350, one yearling mule $81, horses $102 to $170. Corn in field brought $2.75. Much of the corn and hay was not sold on account of lack of time. All of the stock sold except one large, fine jennet jack, which is for sale privately.

MY FAITH LOOKS UP TO THEE

My faith looks up to Thee.
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Savior divine;
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
O let me from this day be wholly Thine.

May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;

As Thou hast died for me,
O may my love to Thee,
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire.

While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my guide;

Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll;

Blest Savior, then, in love,
Fear and distrust remove,
O bear me safe above,—
A ransomed soul.

Money Comes in Bunches.

To A. A. Chisolm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. Its a wonderful medicine." Infallible for stomach, liver, kidneys, blood and nerves. 50¢ at Penny's Drug Store.

Two bombs were exploded in the downtown section of Chicago. The explosions took place in buildings in which it is said gambling clubs are being operated. The explosions caused panics in hotels and theaters, but no one was injured.

"AMERICA."

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty

Of thee I sing:
Land where my fathers died,

Land of the pilgrim's pride,

From ev'ry mountain side,

Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee,

Land of the noble, free,

They name I love;

I love thy rocks and rills,

Thy woods and templed hills;

My heart with rapture thrills

Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,

And ring from all the trees

Sweet freedom's song;

Let mortal tongues awake,

Let all that breathe partake,

Let rocks their silence break,

The sound prolong.

Our father's God! to Thee,

Author of liberty,

To Thee we sing:

Long may our land be bright,

With freedom's holy light;

Protect us by thy might,

Great God! our King!
